

Online Registration Instructions

Registering and fundraising online is a great way to connect with more people, share your story & fundraise for a great cause! The registration process is simple and can be done in a few minutes... you are only few clicks away!

Step #1

- Go to: www.sbia.ca
- Double click on the Brain Boogie Poster
- You will now be at the Brain Boogie Registration Website

NOTE: If you have registered online for any Boogie within the past 3 years, you can just login through the green login button using your previous year's username and password. (Contact amurray000@sasktel.net, a volunteer helping with the Brain Boogie, to recover forgotten usernames or passwords.) This will populate your prior year's information (including your email contacts), and walk you through a confirmation for this year's Boogie. (You will not need to continue with the remaining steps.) If you haven't registered online other years, continue with the remaining steps.

Step #2

- Click on the blue button that says
- Select the city you would like to participate in
- Choose if you will be raising pledges or paying the $40 registration fee ($15 for kids)
- Select if you are creating a team or joining a team
- NOTE: If you are registering as an individual then no other steps on this page are required

Step #3

- Read the waiver
- Below the waiver, click if you agree with the terms & conditions

Step #4

- Fill in your contact information
- Create your username and password
- You have the option of making a donation or choosing to continue
- Review the information you have entered & click ok

CONGRATULATIONS, you are now officially registered for the SBIA Brain Boogie!
